Creations Report

‘Creations’, the annual Inter-collegiate cultural extravaganza hosted by the Students’ Council of the Institution is the oldest inter-collegiate to be hosted in Goa and saw its first edition in 1984. The event has grown from strength to strength over the year and takes meticulous planning creative and financial. On-stage and off-stage competitions based on themes that incorporate the milieu and current trends and debates are held.

Objectives:

- 1) To inculcate team spirit and healthy competition
- 2) To introduce students to event planning, public relations and financial responsibility
- 3) To encourage artistic creativity
- 4) To promote cultural growth

Outcomes:

- 1) The council members and volunteers learn how to work together even under pressure. Students from other institutions who participate learn how to handle victory or loss in true champion spirit.
- 2) The students learn how to successfully plan and execute a multi-level event, they learn how to conduct themselves while meeting sponsors, students and faculty of other institutions. They become financially responsible and make due payments as well as acknowledge sponsors professionally.
- 3) Multiple themes have been explored over the years like robotics, outer-space, imagination and students work hard to put up the perfect creative set-up as well as performances.
- 4) It has been a practice every year to blend the modern with the traditional so as to retain and respect the old alongside the new. Traditional parades are held within the event encouraging local culture.
