A total of 23 students from the F.Y.BSc, S.Y.BSc, and T.Y.BSc., participated in the session, demonstrating their creativity and commitment to environmental sustainability. The event was successfully organized by a team of 8 members, including 4 teachers and 4 non-teaching staff, under the guidance of Dr. Purnima Ghadi, Head of the Department of Botany, and Dr. Shilpa Bhonsle, Coordinator.

Glimpses of the hands on training programme

The training was led by professional Bamboo Artists, Ms. Sonali Rajaram Parwar and her assistant, Mr. Vishal Vithu Parsekar. Participants gained hands-on experience in splitting bamboo and creating botanical art, transforming raw materials into functional pieces such as hair clips, bamboo baskets, and flowers. The Department of Botany honoured the resource persons with certificates and a token of appreciation. All attendees received certificates of participation. The event was a success, made possible by the sponsorship of the DBT Star College Scheme.
